Featuring Keynote Speaker: Chef Bruno Serato

Sir Bruno Serato arrived in the US from his native Italy speaking no English with only $200 in his pocket. Through hard work and determination, he worked his way up from busboy to owner of the critically acclaimed Anaheim White House restaurant, whose patrons include U.S. Presidents, sports stars and celebrities.

But feeding hungry children is what earned him an international reputation. In 2005 he and his mother, Caterina, visited a local Boys and Girls Club. He was deeply moved seeing a 7-year-old boy eating just a bag of potato chips for dinner. Caterina's Club was launched and now feeds some 2,000 children daily.

Hear Chef Bruno speak on "Child Abuse Prevention Begins with Child Wellness" at the 36th Annual Irvine Community Thanksgiving Prayer Breakfast!
