Onenhillion: A Whisper in the Dark

Great Park Gallery · January 31–May 2, 2027

Opening Reception: January 31, 1–3 p.m.

Orange County artist and poet Onenhillion uses poetry, animation, sound, and illustration to create dream-like worlds that explore the emotions of memory. Lush landscapes, imaginative figures, and quiet moments occupy her images, which are often complimented by simple yet poetic prose. Onenhillion: A Whisper in the Dark is the most ambitious immersive installation for the artist to date. Drawing inspiration from childhood memories, this exhibition is an exploration of finding respite in the brighter, often-overlooked joys of daily life amid the darker, fiery days.

Since 2017, Onenhillion has cultivated a dedicated audience and community around her work. Originally creating illustrations that recall kawaii culture vulnerability and aesthetics, the artist has since honed in on crafting her own unique visual language and approach to image making. With refreshing honesty, Onenhillion's work acknowledges the complexities of life's highs and lows while drawing inspiration from her own lived experiences, creating worlds that possess a childlike wonder.
