Onenhillion: A Whisper in the Dark

Great Park Gallery · January 31–May 2, 2027
Opening Reception: January 31, 1–3 p.m.

Southern California-based artist and poet Onenhillion uses poetry, animation, sound, and illustration to create dream-like worlds that explore the emotions of memory. Lush landscapes, imaginative figures, and quiet moments occupy her images, which are often complimented by simple yet poetic sentiments. This exhibition is an exploration of finding respite within melancholy, childhood, and transitions we experience throughout our lives.

Since 2021, Onenhillion has cultivated a dedicated audience and community around her work. Originally creating self-reflective prose and illustration within a digital diary, the artist has since honed in on crafting her own unique visual language and forging expansive, immersive worlds. With refreshing honesty, Onenhillion's work acknowledges the complexities of life's highs and lows. Onenhillion: A Whisper in the Dark invites viewers to tiptoe into the dark, and look where there is light. In the absence of light, what remains?
