

2026 CITY OF IRVINE PARK & RECREATION FIELD GUIDE

PLAY FREE

THIS FIELD GUIDE BELONGS TO:

FIND NEW FRONTIERS

From rolling amber hills to majestic purple sunsets, you can find new frontiers — right in your own backyard. Presented by Hoag, the City of Irvine Park & Recreation Field Guide serves as your map to explore Irvine's award-winning parks, facilities, and libraries.

From winding trails and neighborhood parks to art galleries, community centers, and family-friendly attractions, every destination offers something new to discover under beautiful, spacious skies.

COMPLETE CHALLENGES. COLLECT STAMPS. EARN PRIZES.

Visit one of the participating park, library, or community center locations and complete the activity challenge to earn a stamp for your field guide. There are also special challenges to help you earn stamps.

Complete at least one activity to earn a stamp from each location. Please visit a staff member at each location to receive your stamp.

- Collect six stamps and earn a prize.
- Collect 12 stamps and receive an exclusive 2026 Park & Recreation Month America 250 pin.
- Prizes can be picked up at the Irvine City Hall front desk, while supplies last.

The City of Irvine thanks Hoag for its generous support as the presenting sponsor of the City of Irvine Park & Recreation Field Guide and for helping our community celebrate Park & Recreation Month.
